

Northern California Botanists *

present

a two-day symposium:

THE INTERFACE BETWEEN RESEARCH AND MANAGEMENT IN NORTHERN CALIFORNIA BOTANY

18 – 19 January 2007

California State University Chico
Performing Arts Center (PAC 134)

BE PART OF THIS HISTORIC FIRST SYMPOSIUM OFFERED BY NORTHERN CALIFORNIA BOTANISTS, LINKING THE WORLDS OF APPLIED AND ACADEMIC BOTANY!!!

Learn from two days of speaker presentations and panel discussions!
Network and meet other botanists at the Thursday evening reception and the banquet with Keynote Talk.

Topics addressed:

THE NEED FOR BOTANISTS
RARE PLANT CONSERVATION
BOTANICAL ETHICS
VEGETATION MANAGEMENT

REVEGETATION AND RESTORATION
INVASIVE SPECIES
NORTHERN CALIFORNIA
BOTANICAL DISCOVERIES

KEYNOTE SPEAKER – Dr. Dan Potter, Evolutionary Botanist, UC Davis
Topic: “Taxonomic Implications for Management”

*Northern California Botanists: A Cooperative Association of Federal, State, Academic, Consulting, and Other Botanists in the Northern California Region, with the purpose of increasing communication about botanical issues.

For a detailed program and for registration information, see: <http://www.csuchico.edu/biol/Herb/norcalbot/index.htm>

Cost: $15 Students / $50 public